

The Urantia Book
Teaches Us About God

“The Universal Father is the God of all creation, the First Source and Center of all things and beings. First think of God as a creator, then as a controller, and lastly as an infinite upholder.”
 (1:0.1)

“On a planet of sex creatures, in a world where the impulses of parental emotion are inherent in the hearts of its intelligent beings, the term Father becomes a very expressive and appropriate name for the eternal God. He is best known, most universally acknowledged, on your planet, Urantia, by the name God. The name he is given is of little importance; the significant thing is that you should know him and aspire to be like him.” ( 1:1.6)

“He is a saving person and a loving Father to all who enjoy spiritual peace on earth, and who crave to experience personality survival in death.”
 ( 1:2.2)

“The Father's love follows us now and throughout the endless circle of the eternal ages. As you ponder the loving nature of God, there is only one reasonable and natural personality reaction thereto: You will increasingly love your Maker; you will yield to God an affection analogous to that given by a child to an earthly parent; for, as a father, a real father, a true father, loves his children, so the Universal Father loves and forever seeks the welfare of his created sons and daughters.” ( 2:5.9)

“Mortal man cannot possibly know the infinitude of the heavenly Father. Finite mind cannot think through such an absolute truth or fact. But this same finite human being can actually feel—literally experience—the full and undiminished impact of such an infinite Father's LOVE.” ( 3:4.6)

“Therefore man's nearest and dearest approach to God is by and through love, for God is love.”

PAPER 1	The Universal Father
PAPER 2	The Nature of God
PAPER 3	The Attributes of God
PAPER 4	God's Relation to the Universe
PAPER 5	God's Relation to the Individual

The Urantia Book is a wake-up call to our planet from the rest of the inhabited universe, telling us where we are, who we are, and why we are, as individuals and as a collective human family. It is also the story of why up to now we have been largely ignorant of our origins, history, and destiny, and of our place in the vast universe that our small world has always had a beloved place in, no matter how blind we've been to that. We have never been alone, as individuals nor as a world, and now The Urantia Book is given us to reveal our true home—that of our world in space and that of our individual beings in the heart of the eternal Creator. The spirit of God lives within each of us, to guide us through the universe after this life to his presence at the Source and Center of all things. Finally, the book is also a year by year, day by day, even minute by minute account of the life and teachings of Joshua ben Joseph, Jesus of Nazareth, told by eyewitnesses to the events of the noblest and most selfless life ever lived, a story not limited by human vision and understanding that clarifies and illuminates the Biblical account.

You can find The Urantia Book in libraries and bookstores, or you can order it from the Urantia Book Club. There is a network of Urantia Book study groups all over the world and visitors are always welcome.
