

are numerous, it would require many years to accomplish the needed work. The wheat hangs heavy, it is now time to harvest.

Objective One: Facilitate, encourage, promote and foster the personal religious experience of the individual with our Heavenly Father.

Our first responsibility is to help one another experience our Heavenly Father in a personal way. This implies an outgoing attitude of sharing the joy and upholding the responsibility of knowing God. Even though knowing God is a personal experience, there are actions that groups can take to facilitate this experience. Some are:

A. Group Worship services are conducive to knowing God. The book is clear that the evolutionary act of group worship must be available to us.

B. Crisis often produces the most dramatic changes in individuals. If we provided spiritual counseling services, people may be steered to God for the solutions to their life's problems. Jesus was always helping others with their problems. His amazing listening ability coupled with his spiritual advice freed so many confused people.

C. We must be forthright with our faith. We should never hide our love and faith in God. Our willingness to share our faith with family, friends and strangers will inspire their own hopes of eternal life.

There are as many ways to reach this objective. Most are personal, quiet and as numerous as there are believers.

Objective Two: Spread The URANTIA Book throughout the world.

We all know that The URANTIA Book is not the destination, it is a service station. Yet it is the most powerful service station we have. There can be little doubt that in our own personal search for God, the Revelation has aided us dramatically. Most of us wouldn't be where we are today without the Book. We should not be afraid or ashamed of our Gospel, we should not be ambivalent about our belief in The URANTIA Book.

Spreading The URANTIA Book is our duty. There are basic material channels that must be used correctly if we are to succeed in this task. The following graph dramatically portrays the problems we are having sharing The URANTIA Book.
